

JOB APPLICANT DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The information PSI obtains in relation to your application may be used for considering your suitability for employment and for general statistical analysis and reporting purposes, including candidate activity and demographic reports. PSI will collect, process and protect your personal information in compliance with applicable laws on data protection, including the laws and regulations of your country of domicile, if you apply for a job locally.

You are responsible for ensuring that the information you submit is accurate and up-to-date. We will not seek any additional data without your explicit prior consent. Should we decide to offer you a job, we may at that time ask you to provide your consent to the use of third parties to verify your information. If we do not employ you at this time, you agree that we may retain and use the information that you provided in relation to your application for up to three years so as to be able to consider your application later if a suitable position becomes available and, if appropriate, to refer back to this application if you apply again. If at any time you no longer want PSI to consider your application, please let us know at job@psi-cro.com, in which case your information will be stored securely for no more than three years and access to it will be blocked unless such access becomes necessary for legal and regulatory purposes.

Your information will not be shared with third parties for any purposes unrelated to considering your suitability for employment or providing anonymous statistical analysis and anonymous reporting.

Where required, your information may be disclosed to law enforcement, regulatory or other government agencies, or third parties where necessary to comply with legal or regulatory obligations or requests. You may review, update or request blocking from further use or removal of your personal applicant information at any time using this site or by sending a request at privacy@psi-cro.com.

Nothing contained in the Privacy Notice creates or is intended to create a contract or agreement between PSI and any candidate visiting this Website or providing identifying information of any kind.
